

MASA BULLETIN

- The Tenth Annual Meeting of the MASA will be held on the campus of the Southern Illinois University in Alton, Illinois, April 3, 1965.
- The Executive Committee of MASA assembled for lunch and a business meeting afterward at the home of Professor and Mrs. Jerzy Hauptmann in Parkville, Missouri, October 3, 1964. New subscription rates for MASJ were set at $2.50 for non-members of MASA, $1.00 for members. Back issues may be purchased for $1.50 each.
- Professor Myra Olstead, University of Kansas, President of the Kansas Folklore Society, announces an annual membership drive for KFS. Memberships at $3.00 per year begin on January 1. Checks should be sent to Mrs. Portia Allbert, Secretary-Treasurer, KFS, Kansas Historical Building, Topeka, Kansas. The annual meeting of the Society will be held at the University of Kansas in Lawrence in March. The principal speaker will be Professor John Messenger, a specialist in folklore, African studies, and anthropology at Indiana University.
- On May 14-15, 1965, the Purdue University English Department will sponsor a Mid-America Conference on Literature, History, Popular Culture, and Folklore. Persons interested in attending should write to Ray B. Browne, English Department, Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana.
- Those interested in joining the Kansas State Historical Society may write to the Society at Memorial Building, 120 West Tenth, Topeka, Kansas 66612. Annual membership is $5.00; sustaining, $10.00 annually; patron, $100.00 annually. Life membership is $50.00.
- Editor Stuart Levine has spent a busy sabbatical semester over his typewriter. He and his wife Susan interrupted their work on manuscripts only to celebrate the birth of a son, Aaron, in late November. He will return to his editorial and teaching duties at the University of Kansas in February.