

The Colorado Quarterly

The Quarterly, now in its twelfth year, is a magazine of regional and national scope designed to appeal to the general reader. In addition to fiction and poetry, each issue features an exceptionally diversified selection of provocative articles written in non-technical style by specialists in all fields.

Representative articles which have appeared recently include:

| | |
|---|---------------------|
| Music of Today in America | Roy Harris |
| The Heritage of a Free University | Reuben G. Gustavson |
| Challenge of Freedom in a Changing World | Walter P. Reuther |
| The Rising Cost of Freedom | Charles H. Percy |

Address: THE COLORADO QUARTERLY, Hellems 118
The University of Colorado, Boulder

A note for reviewers: For obvious reasons, the Journal cannot supply reviewers with offprints of their reviews. We can provide extra copies of the number in which the review appears, at a reduced rate, or we can have reprints of the review made up at our usual rate of $10 per 100 copies. In either case, write the Treasurer at Park College, Parkville, Missouri.
