Jay Gould: "All the sins of Erie lie buried here."
Justice: "I am not quite so blind."
