a special issue devoted to

VLADIMIR NABOKOV

VOL. VIII

NO. 2

SPRING 1967

This special issue will add significantly to our knowledge, understanding, and appreciation of one of the greatest literary figures of our time. Stressed will be Nabokov's European and Russian backgrounds prior to his English-language career, and his little-known earlier works of importance. Included will be the first comprehensive Nabokov bibliography ever published in English. Now is the opportune time for all serious readers of contemporary literature to begin a subscription to Wisconsin Studies. Only $4.00 will bring you the special Nabokov issue, and the following three issues, featuring stimulating and significant criticisms, reviews, and researches in recent American and European fiction and poetry. Recent issues have featured interviews with John Barth, Mark Harris, Saul Bellow, and John Hawkes, and contributions of Ihab H. Hassan, Germaine Bree, John Simon, Henri Peyre, William Meredith, Leslie A. Fiedler, Horace Gregory, Richard Schickel, Allen Tate, and Reed Whittemore. Do, please, accept this invitation to subscribe now. There is no need to enclose remittance.
