

change the price.) Subscribers will, of course, receive the special issue at no extra cost. We would appreciate your mentioning the issue to friends in anthropology; it has already been adopted as a text for several courses, but since we plan to print only as many copies as we receive advance orders, single or group orders must be placed before September 1. For personal orders, a check for $2.00 made out to MASAJ goes to Professor Hauptmann at Park College, Parkville, Missouri. For class adoption, orders go to Professor Hauptmann, who will make available the usual bookstore discount.

NEW RESOURCES FOR AMERICAN STUDIES III: TOM SAWYER IN FLORIDA

The manuscript for Mark Twain's The Adventures of Tom Sawyer, used for the first publication of the book, is owned by the Missouri State Park Board and is permanently on deposit at the Mark Twain Memorial Shrine, Florida, Missouri. The manuscript is temporarily on display in the Missouri Building at the World's Fair in New York. The manuscript of 655 pages is largely in the hand of a professional copyist but has fifteen pages and many notes and corrections by Mark Twain. It is the script read by William Dean Howells and includes many corrections, suggestions and questions in Howell's hand. With the manuscript are several unpublished letters by Mark Twain.

Ralph Gregory, Curator

