masa bulletin

Boston University, 725 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts 02215. A staff exorcist will be available.

ELITES AND ECONOMICS: The Eleutherian Mills-Hagley Foundation and its Regional Economic History Research Center sponsor a conference April 21, 1978 on "Elites and Economic Development, 1750-1850." Further information from William H. Mulligan, Jr., REHRC, EMHF, Greenville, Wilmington, Delaware 19807. Because we are never sure precisely when American Studies will come out, we put late spring announcements in ambiguous tense. No telling as I write this blurb in February whether, when you read it, this conference will be held, has been held, or is being held.

EXPERIMENTS IN HISTORY TEACHING is the title of a collaborative effort by eighty-odd college and high school teachers. Publication of the book is subsidized to keep its price, $3.50, below cost. Roy Rosenzweig, Joint Center for Urban Studies of MIT and Harvard, 53 Church Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts 02138 has details.

PSYCHOLOGY MONEY: The archives of The History of American Psychology have some; scholars with projects which could use them may apply for it. You write to John V. Miller, Jr., Director of Archival Services, University of Akron, Akron, Ohio 44325. Winners receive up to $500 to be used for an all-expenses-paid working vacation (isn't that what scholarship should be?) in Akron.

WOMEN'S HISTORY: Gabrielle Spiegel, History, University of Maryland, College

Park 20742 has information about the Berkshire Conference on the History of Women on August 20-25, 1978, at Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Massachusetts.

PCAS stands for Popular Culture Association in the South, and it meets in Nashville, Tennessee, October 8-10, 1978. Ralph von Tresckow Napp says that he wants one-page abstracts or descriptions of proposed sessions. His address is Sociology, Winston-Salem State University, Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27102.

COMPARATIVE CIVILIZATIONS: The International Society for the Comparative Study of Civilizations (US) holds its eighth annual meeting at California State University, Northridge, March 22-25, 1979. Papers are called for in a number of categories; one writes Edmond Leites, Philosophy, Queens College, Flushing, New York 11367 for details.
