

The Papers of Woodrow Wilson

Arthur S. Link, Editor

David W. Hirst and John E. Little, Associate Editors

---

Volume 19: 1909-1910

Covering the period from January 20, 1909 to January 11, 1910, the documents in this volume reveal momentous developments in Wilson's thought and in the history of Princeton University. They trace Wilson's growth as university administrator and budding politician, and make possible greater understanding of his personal relationships. $22.50

---

Volume 20: January 12 - July 15, 1910

This volume, spanning the period from January 12 to July 15, 1910, documents Wilson's life during the greatest crisis of his academic career, concerning the graduate college controversy, and his somewhat protracted decision to enter politics. The volume ends with his announcement that he would accept the New Jersey Democratic gubernatorial nomination. $22.50

---

Volume 21: July 15 - November 9, 1910

This volume, covering the period between July 15 and November 9, 1910, chronicles Wilson's entry into politics with his nomination for Governor of New Jersey, his subsequent campaign, triumphant election, and emergence as a political figure of national prominence. $22.50

10% subscription discount available to libraries and individuals in the U.S. and Canada only.

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY PRESS

Princeton, New Jersey 08540