THE INDEPENDENT JOURNAL OF PHILOSOPHY UNABHÄNGIGE ZEITSCHRIFT FÜR PHILOSOPHIE

Editorial Statement: The Independent Journal of Philosophy provides an international forum for the exploration of responsible, articulate alternatives to the positivist, Marxist, and narrowly academicist trends that characterize much of present-day philosophy. Although not aligned with any particular school or movement, it takes its general philosophical bearings by the Platonic-Aristotelean conceptions of 'reason,' 'wisdom,' and 'intuitable form,' and the classical-humanistic moral and political tradition. While not insensitive to the nihilistic implications of the historicism, relativism, and irrationalism stemming from aspects of modern philosophy, it is interested in dialogue with especially the idealist, phenomenological, and existentialist traditions. It welcomes broadly relevant, problem-oriented contributions (including essays, replies, book reviews, translations, dialogues, aphorisms, and philosophical analyses of works of literature and art) in all major areas of philosophy, and particularly in areas announced as special themes for future issues. While most of its material is written in English, it also publishes work in French and German.
