

The Slavic, East European, and Eurasian Folklore Association (SEEFA) is devoted to an exchange of knowledge among scholars interested in Slavic, East European and Eurasian Folklore. SEEFA seeks to promote instruction in Slavic, East European and Eurasian folklore, organizes panels on the subject at national and international conferences, encourages the preparation of teaching materials and translations, and fosters exchanges. SEEFA also seeks to promote joint research, scholarly exchanges and conferences, expeditions, and publications with scholars in Slavic and other East European and Eurasian countries. Individual membership in SEEFA is $35 per year for regular members, $10 for students, and $45 for institutions. Send checks to the Secretary-Treasurer: Shannon Spasova, Department of Linguistics and Germanic, Slavic, Asian and African Languages, Michigan State University, 619 Red Cedar Road, B-331 Wells Hall, East Lansing, MI 48824-3402. Email: sdspasova@gmail.com.

Membership may also be paid in US dollars by using a credit card at: <http://www.seefa.org/Membership.html>.

FOLKLORICA is published once per year. Articles appear on the SEEFA web site at: <http://www.seefa.org/>

Articles, surveys, reviews, notices of conferences or expeditions, and announcements from scholars in any relevant field are acceptable. Contributions will be evaluated by the editorial board or by other specialists.

Each contribution copyright 2019 by its author.

All rights reserved.

Printed in Kentucky, United States.