NALLD/ACTFL Meeting: The NALLD Southern Regional Meeting was held in conjunction with the ACTFL meeting in New Orleans. The meeting was an unqualified success as it was "standing room only" for the two speeches given. The audience indicated its interest by engaging in a lively discussion following the presentations. Those of you who missed the meeting can read the speeches in this issue of the Journal.

Resignation: Tom Goldsworthy has submitted his resignation as a member of the executive board and as editor. Tom's contribution to NALLD as its founding father and as a motivating force in its continued growth is well known and greatly appreciated by the membership.

Directory: The American Language Lab Directory has been received at the Publication Center from the editor, Mr. LaMarr Kopp. The Directory has been delayed in release due to the time required in transferring the material to stencils for duplication. At the meeting in New Orleans Dr. Kopp publicly expressed his thanks for the work done by the regional editors of the Directory.

Position Wanted: College or University Language Laboratory Director with or without teaching of German/Latin or library assignment.

Experience: Professional librarian, high school and college teacher, assistant to the language laboratory director. Member of several professional organizations.

Languages: German, Latin, Ancient Greek, Russian. (French and Spanish as far as it is necessary to direct a language laboratory).

Date: Prefer September 1970: would consider January 1971.
