Northeast Conference

The 1977 Northeast Conference on the Teaching of Foreign Languages will meet April 28-30, 1977, at the Washington-Hilton Hotel in Washington, D.C. The theme selected by Conference Chairperson, Jane M. Bourque of the Stratford (Conn.) Public Schools, is LANGUAGE: ACQUISITION, APPLICATION, APPRECIATION.

As the largest Conference in the country devoted to the improvement of foreign language teaching, the 1977 Northeast Conference will again offer the profession its greatest collection of Workshops, Demonstrations, and Exhibits under one roof. In addition, the Second Annual Modern Language Film Festival will screen a variety of short films on non-English speaking languages and cultures. Also, the Career Counseling Service will assist teachers and their students in determining where to go to find job opportunities in foreign languages.

The 1977 Northeast Conference Reports will examine the theme from point of view of the learner. ACQUISITION: How does one learn a language?

APPLICATION: In what ways can one make use of a second language?

APPRECIATION: What are the personal rewards of language learning? Sponsors and registrants receive gratis copies in advance of the Conference.
