

CALL FOR PAPERS

FORUM FOR INTERDISCIPLINARY RESEARCH - III

An International Conference on

Language Problems and Public Policy

December 16-19, 1981

Cancun, Mexico

Fiesta Americana Hotel, Yucatan & the Mexican Caribbean

Deadline for Abstracts:
June 15, 1981

Dr. Geraldo Kaprosy,
Conference Coordinator

Director, Mexico Language
& Culture Institute
4733 Tumbleweed Avenue
El Paso, Texas 79924, USA

(915) 751-9643

Send Abstracts to:
Dr. Robert St. Clair,
Conference Chairperson

Department of English
University of Louisville
Louisville, Ky 40292, USA

(502) 588-6801 Dept./Message
588-6770 Office

Topics

Language Planning, Politics of Remediation, Problems of Standardization, Social History and Policy Formation, Case Histories of Language Development, Language Renewal, Lexical Modernization, Foundations of Language Education and Political Socialization, Political Symbolism, Language and Inter-ethnic Relations, Language Awareness and Social Class Language Attitudes, Language Acquisition and Public Policy, Multi-lingualism, The Role of Ideology in Language Planning, Language and Symbolic Interactionism, The Politics of Linguistic Accommodation, Language and Sexism, Rhetoric and Composition, & Intervention.

Plenary Sessions

The Social Psychology Paradigm of Language Planning, Dr. Howard Giles (Bristol University, England), Dr. Richard Bourhis (McMaster University, Canada) and Associates

Bilingualism and Problems of Language Planning, Dr. John Edwards (St. Francis Xavier University, Canada) and Associates

The Parameters of Language Planning: Position Paper and Panel Discussion, Dr. Moshe Nahir, University of Manitoba (Canada) and Israeli Institute of Technology (Israel).