FOREIGN LANGUAGE EDUCATION AND TECHNOLOGY (FLEAT)

TOKYO, JAPAN

AUGUST 18-21, 1981

Okura Hotel

The following is a revised itinerary for the FLEAT conference. This revised schedule includes Hong Kong (Macao optional), Taipei, Kyoto and Tokyo. The price for the basic tour, August 8-22, 1981 is $1,998.18 and includes accommodations in Tokyo's IMPERIAL HOTEL. A three day, post conference, Hawaii extension is offered for an additional $155.

Saturday, 08 August - LOS ANGELES/TOKYO

Today you will rendezvous in Los Angeles where your Orient holiday begins. You board your JAPAN AIR LINES Garden Jet. Japan Air Lines offers you a glimpse of the warm hospitality you can expect to find during your trip. You will be attended by charming Japanese hostesses, sample native tea and Oriental food.

Sunday, 09 August - ARRIVE HONG KONG

Arrive Kai Tak Airport and after clearing customs and immigrations your awaiting escorts will transfer you to the LEE GARDENS HOTEL.

Monday, 10 August - HONG KONG

American breakfast at your hotel.

Enjoy a morning tour of Hong Kong Island - visiting Tiger Balm Gardens, where the white pagoda and fascinating statues depict scenes from Chinese Mythology; Repulse Bay, one of the Orient's finest beaches; Victoria Peak by tram to enjoy a magnificent view of the harbour. Luncheon will be served at the Peak Tower Restaurant overlooking Hong Kong harbour.

Return to the hotel following luncheon for a leisure afternoon and evening exploring Hong Kong.

Tuesday, 11 August - HONG KONG

American breakfast at the hotel.

You are free to plan your own exciting day. You may wish to join an optional tour to MACAU - the Monte Carlo of the East. Transfer to the pier where you will board a hydrofoil for Macau, a city which still retains its old world charm with a Portuguese influence, multi-colored houses and cobblestoned streets. See the facade of St. Paul's dating to the 17th Century. Also visit the residence of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, father of democratic movement in China, and stop at the border gate between Macau and China. After lunch, you will have an opportunity to test your luck at one of Macau's casinos.

Wednesday, 12 August - HONG KONG

American breakfast at the hotel.

Again, your day is free to plan your own exciting exploration. (Remember to save the evening for a sunset Cruise).

An optional half day tour to Kowloon and the New Territories may be of interest to you. You will ride through busy Kowloon to the New Territories stopping at Lok Ma Chow for a glimpse of the Sumshum River, the border between Hong Kong and the People's Republic of China, with mainland China in the distance. Here in the New Territories you will see fragments of Chinese life as it has existed for centuries - as well as a contemporary environment.

In the late afternoon you will transfer to Balke Pier and board an authentic Chinese "junk" for a sunset cruise through Victoria harbour. Cocktails will be served on board. You will visit Aberdeen, the "floating city", riding past hundreds of houseboats, graceful sampans and junks. As you return, the twinkling lights of Hong Kong come alive around you.

Thursday, 13 August - HONG KONG/TAIPEI

American breakfast at the hotel.

After breakfast you will be transferred to the Kai Tak Airport for the flight to Taipei. Upon arrival in Taipei and after clearing customs and immigrations you will be transferred to your accommodations at the magnificent GRAND HOTEL.

Friday, 14 August - TAIPEI

American breakfast at the hotel.

Taipei - a study of the China that was and is - your morning sight-seeing tour includes the Changing of the Guard in Presidential Square, a tour of the National Museum, with its incredible collection of old Chinese treasures, and a visit to Lungshan and Confucius Temples. Your afternoon is free to browse and stop in the colorful Haggler's Market.

Saturday, 15 August - TAIPEI/KYOTO

American breakfast at the hotel.

Transfer to the airport this morning for a flight to Osaka where you then board a motorcoach to Kyoto where accommodations await at the KYOTO HOTEL.

American breakfast at the hotel.

Sunday, 16 August - KYOTO

American breakfast at the hotel.

Wood-frame dwellings, temples, palaces and gardens will be the focus of your sightseeing here in this cultural center, among them, the Heian Shrine and gardens, the Golden Pavilion and Sanjusangendo Hall with its 1,001 wooden Buddhas. Each site figures historically when Kyoto was the Japanese Capital from 794 to 1868.

Monday, 17 August - KYOTO/TOKYO

After early breakfast at the hotel, transfer to Kyoto rail station and board the BULLET TRAIN, the world's fastest, for Tokyo. Upon arrival Tokyo a tour of the city includes visits to the Imperial Palace, Asakusa Kannon Temple, the Nakamise Arcade, along with other aspects of this bustling city. Luncheon will be at Chinzanso Restaurant with delicious Teppen-Yaki grilled at your table as an oasis of landscaped gardens surrounds you.

After luncheon you will be escorted to your accommodations at the IMPERIAL HOTEL.

Tuesday, 18 August - TOKYO through

Friday, 21 August - FLEAT CONFERENCE

Buffet breakfast at the hotel.

NOTE: A staffed tour desk will be available at the hotel to assist those desiring optional tours, restaurant and general information.

Saturday, 22 August - TOKYO/WEST COAST

Buffet breakfast at the hotel.

Reluctantly you will say "sayonara" as you are transferred to the Narita International Airport where your JAPAN AIR LINES Garden Jet is waiting to soar across the Pacific. There will be unforgettable memories to savor and relish for a lifetime.

Saturday, 22 August - TOKYO/HONOLULU

Buffet breakfast at the hotel.

Transfer to Narita International Airport and board JAPAN AIR LINES Garden Jet arriving Honolulu in the morning hours. After immigrations and customs formalities, you'll receive a traditional lei greeting and transfer to the MONARCH HOTEL.

Sunday, 23 August - HONOLULU

Breakfast at the hotel.

This day is yours to do as you please - sun, sightsee, shop or relax. Hawaii is just about everyone's favorite place for relaxation and here you are - in the heart of it.

Monday, 24 August - HONOLULU/WEST COAST

Breakfast at the hotel.

Transfer to the airport and its "aloha" as you reflect - a perfect sojourn with old friends and new acquaintances.

Tokyo Welcomes You

AUG. 18-21, 1981

1st International Conference on Foreign Language Education and Technology (FLEAT)

The first international FLEAT conference will take you to Tokyo, Japan, for an unforgettable four days that will focus on "World Cooperation in the Use of Technology in Foreign Language Education."
