

NALLD NOTE

Dale V. Lally Jr.

New Publications of interest to NALLD Members. A special issue of Studies in Language Learning Vol. 3, Nr. 1 will discuss computers and foreign language study. "The PLATO Systems and Language Study", edited by Robert S. Hart, is available for $5.25 from the Language Learning Laboratory, University of Illinois, G70 Foreign Languages Building, 707 S. Mathews, Urbana, Ill 61801. This issue includes numerous articles on the use of computers in foreign language instruction.

Forthcoming issues are "Foreign Languages and the Public" edited by U. Henry Gerlach and "The Foreign Language Syllabus" edited by Mario Saltarelli, scheduled for Fall 1981 and Spring 1982 respectively.

Scholastic, Inc., is publishing a completely new journal entitled ELECTRONIC LEARNING. It is billed as "The Magazine for Educators of the 80's" The first year's subscription is evidently free. The first edition, which appeared in September/October 1981, was almost completely dedicated to the use of computers and video. For more information contact Scholastic Magazines, 902 Sylvan Avenue, Englewood Cliffs, NJ 07632

TESP SUPPORTS ALL FOREIGN LANGUAGE TEACHERS

Trans-European Student Programs (TESP), a non-profit educational foundation for cross-cultural understanding and bilingual education, offers a great variety of services intended to aid the foreign language profession. Included in their wide selection of FL promoters and fund raisers for classes of German, French, Spanish, Latin, and Italian, are imported candies, foods, T-shirts, buttons, Christmas cards, games, and other related items. Their Wholesale List, for teachers only, is available by sending a stamped envelope.

TESP also has an exciting line of nationality decorations ideal for classroom or club activities. Their beautiful 64-page catalogue, covering over 40 nationalities, includes posters, emblems, flags, pennants, table accessories, costumes, records, and hundreds of imported items that are certain to enhance the study of foreign languages. The catalogue is available at $2.00 each, including postage.

In addition to these services, TESP specializes in low-cost charter flights for students and teachers. For school groups traveling to Europe, they can find you a charter flight from most major cities in the U.S. TESP also organizes high school study tours to Europe, for students of German, at very reasonable prices. For information, write: TESP, Box 1485, Jamestown, ND 58401.