

Classified/Reading Ads: $1.00 per word for 1 issue (15 words minimum); $.75 per word for each of 4 issues. Area code and phone number count as 2 words. Send ad with check or money order to: JETTMART Classified Manager, 304C Moore College Building, UGA Language Laboratories, University of Georgia, Athens, Georgia 30602, U.S.A.

JETTMART: Positions Available

English Language Instructors

The Institute of Public Administration, a government-sponsored institution for administrative development, is based in Riyadh. It has branches in Jeddah and Damman. Riyadh, Jeddah, and Damman have large English language centers. The well-equipped centers offer intensive and semi-intensive courses in General Purpose English and English for Special Purposes. Vacancies exist at all three centers for instructors for 1988-89. Consideration will be given to married teaching couples. Qualifications include a B.A. or B.S. in English with TEFL experience or an M.A. in TEFL/Applied Linguistics and related teaching experience. Familiarity with the Middle East and experience in teaching ESP with programming for computer-assisted language learning background is highly desirable. Contracts are one year, renewable, and offering an excellent basic monthly salary commensurate with experience. Benefits include annual round-trip tickets for teacher and family, rent-free accommodations, 45 days' paid vacation plus local holidays, education benefits, free medical care, and end-of-service gratuity. Qualified applicants should send cover letter and copy of current c.v., together with copies of diplomas and supporting documents to: The Director, The English Language Center, Institute of Public Administration, P.O. Box 205, Riyadh, 11141, Saudi Arabia.

Teachers Needed

Ph.D., Master's and Bachelor's degree holders are needed in The People's Republic of China to teach English Literature, American Literature, Economics, Trade & Finance, International Law, Computer Science, American History, Linguistics, TESL, International Marketing, Business Administration, and Math. Applications are now being accepted by the International Placement Exchange for the Fall 1988 Academic Year. Send vita and letter of interest to: IEPS, Suite 1522, 163 Joralemon Street, Brooklyn, New York 11201.

Doctoral Research Assistantships

The University of Oklahoma announces the availability of 12 Doctoral Research Assistantships. As part of the University's Centennial activities, these assistantships have been set up each year for a four-year period. The stipends range from $10,000 to $12,000 for nine months with tuition and fees paid. The assistantship is renewable for four years if performance is satisfactory. The twelve areas in which assistantships have been established are Botany/Microbiology, Chemical Engineering and Materials Science, Chemistry, Civil Engineering, Environmental Science, Geosciences, History of Science, Industrial Engineering, Meteorology, Music, Physics, and Psychology. For further information and applications, write to: Dean Kenneth L. Hoving, Graduate College, The University of Oklahoma, 1000 Asp, Room 313, Norman, OK 73019. Minority students are encouraged to apply.

Contributing Editor-Europe

The Journal of Educational Techniques and Technologies has an opening on its staff for the position of Contributing Editor-Europe. The position is open to anyone with expertise in the area of practices and products for today's foreign, second, and native language learning; the qualified applicant must currently reside in Europe. This is a service position without monetary remuneration. Complete job description is available upon request. Interested persons should send letter of interest and copy of current c.v. to: Suzanne E. Lindenau, Editor, J.E.T.T., 304C Moore College Building, UGA Language Laboratories, University of Georgia, Athens, Georgia, 30602, U.S.A.

Technical Consultant

The Journal of Educational Techniques and Technologies has openings for the position of technical consultants for its ASK THE TECHNICIAN feature. Interested applicants may send letters of interest and copy of current résumé to: J.E.T.T. 304C Moore College Building, UGA Language Laboratories, University of Georgia, Athens, Georgia 30602, U.S.A.

JETTMART: Equipment Wanted

To fill out a language lab, I need six Sony ER-840 booth recorders. Price depends on condition. Contact Paul Lussky, Language & Cultural Center, University of Houston, Houston, TX 77004. Telephone: (713) 749-2713

