[Editor's Note: This section is for those odds and ends that never seem to fit neatly anywhere else. Among items included here are classified ads, calendar of upcoming events, product announcements, membership and advertising information, etc. Please submit items for this section directly to the editor.]

GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

We encourage the submission of articles and notes for possible publication in The IALL Journal. Scholarly articles will be submitted to referees, and final publication decisions will be the responsibility of the editor. Selection of notes and articles for columns will be made by the editor and/or associate editors.

Manuscripts and materials submitted for consideration should be double spaced, with the author's name on a cover page but not on any of the pages of the manuscript. Style should follow one of the standard scholarly guidelines (e.g. American Psychological Association, University of Chicago's A Manual of Style, or the MLA Handbook.)

New Policy: All materials must be submitted in both printed and electronic formats. Please include a diskette with the article in either Macintosh or IBM format (preferably MS Word or WordPerfect). Materials not submitted in both printed and electronic formats will not be considered.

For detailed submission guidelines, or if you have questions about the appropriateness of potential submissions, please contact the editor:

CLASSIFIEDS/ANNOUNCEMENTS

National Foreign Language Resource Center: LARC Foreign Language Multimedia Workshop. The Language Acquisition Resource Center (LARC) is sponsoring a foreign language multimedia development workshop to be held at San Diego State University, June 14 - 18, 1993. The workshop participants will examine and evaluate existing multimedia materials, but the main focus will center on the production of a multimedia project which the participants can take back to their own institution for further development.

To facilitate ongoing development and subsequent integration of technology, participants will be selected in pairs. A group of fourteen participants will be selected from seven universities across the nation to take part in the hands-on workshop. To cover travel and other expenses, LARC will provide an incentive payment of $1300 to each participant selected. Institutional support will be a major consideration in the selection of participant teams.

The workshop is designed for seven teams consisting of a language professor and a support person (e.g., technician, laboratory personnel, GTA or other). One member from each team should have previous exposure to Windows. All participants will be asked to gain experience with using a "mouse" prior to attendance. Each team will have the opportunity to develop a prototype multimedia program using Toolbook on the PS/2 platform.

Language educators who are interested in applying for the workshop should contact Honorine Nocon at the address below to request an application form. Completed applications must be received by March 22, 1993. Successful applicants will be notified by April 30, 1993.

For an application form, contact:

PRODUCT NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

[Editor's Note: our corporate members are invited to submit information, press releases, etc., about Language Learning Lab products. The IALL Journal does not endorse any product, but provides this space as a service to our members.]

Dans la peau des français (In the French Body), and In deutsche Haut geschlüpft (In the German Body) are recently-released interactive video programs for the Macintosh in which students learn the verbal, tonal and nonverbal details of segments of conversation and use a method-acting technique to emulate the total body experience of native speakers. "Only 7% of communication comes from the words," says Carolyn Fidelman, project director for "In the French Body," a project funded by FIPSE, the Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education. "Another 38% of the message we send to others is carried through intonation, word stress, and facial expression." Kinesics (or body language) carry the remaining 55% of meaning. The basic package is priced at $400 and includes videodisc, instructional software, teacher's guide, teacher training tape, customer support and 4 teacher diskettes. Student diskettes, with sound, printing and notebook data storage are $15 each, $125 for a 10-pack.

For more information, or to place an order, contact Carolyn Fidelman, (617) 287-5989, or (800) 528-7398, email: fidelman%umbosky.dnet@ns.umb.edu.

Destinos: An Introduction to Spanish will be available on videodisc in Spring '93. The entire series of 26 videodiscs is priced at $1,850. French in Action is also available on disc for the same price. Contact the Annenberg/CPB Collection at (800) LEARNER or by fax: (802) 864-9846.

Three new Annenberg/CPB series premiered on PBS in January. Out of the Past: Introduction to Archaeology, Rural Communities: Legacy and Change, and Americas explore the ancient ruins of lost societies, journey through the rapidly changing landscape of rural America, and explore the worlds of Latin America and the Caribbean through the eyes of their diverse people. A decade in the making, Americas gives the viewer an insider's look into the contemporary history, politics, and culture of Latin America and the Caribbean. Issues important to the region, including economic development, migration, racial identity, the role of women, religion, the arts, national sovereignty and revolution, as well as the growing Latin and Caribbean populations in the United States, are studied in depth. The programs are available on videocassette. For more information, contact the Annenberg/CPB Collection at (800) LEARNER or by fax: (802) 864-9846.

WordMate announces the release of an audio program to speed the learning of Spanish from English or English from Spanish. According to the developer, foreign words and phrases are learned faster and spoken with greater accuracy and fluency with the WordMate method compared to conventional audio programs. The programs have an album with 4 stereo audio-cassettes and a bilingual workbook and come with a money back guarantee. $49.95 (Illinois residents add 8.75% sales tax) and $3.50 for shipping. Contact: WordMate, PO Box 992, Dept. B, Skokie, IL 60076-0992, (708) 677-0448.

Language Partner is an Amiga-based interactive videodisc program developed by the Western Australian Distance Education Consortium (WADEC). The functional-notional approach to language teaching is used. Contact Dr. Walter Howse, WADEC, Murdoch University, Murdoch, WA, Australia 6150
