#1. Robert Wilson, Homage to Tadeusz Kantor.
I feel the earth move a lot. It could be it to start of a sound. This one.
I feel everything now. It could be some movements of tribes. It is.
It could get some interment like that. It could see your heart for.
It could be the real thing. It could get us free, it could be shown up.
It could be to know to shop well. It could get some leaks of looks.
It could get some of those men to do.
I feel the earth move under my feet. I feel tumbling down tumble a.
