

The American-German Institute of Baldwin-Wallace College in collaboration with the Society for German-American Studies invites you to attend

SYMPOSIUM: GERMAN-AMERICAN HISTORICAL, GENEALOGICAL AND LITERARY PERSPECTIVES

June 4, 1977

Auditorium of the Jacob O. Kamm Bldg.
Baldwin-Wallace College, Berea, Ohio

Admission Free

Speakers and Topics:

Dr. Ernst Waldenrath (Lehigh University),
The German Language in Early Pennsylvania

Dr. Karl J.R. Arndt (Clark University),
The Hessian Surrender at Saratoga and the POW March to Boston in 1777

Dr. Arthur R. Schultz (Wesleyan University),
German-Americana As A Problem In History

Don Heinrich Tolzmann (University of Cincinnati),
Biographical and Bibliographical Sources on German-Americans

Dr. La Vern J. Rippley (St. Olaf College),
Samples of German-American Communities As Defined By County Line

Dr. Peter Merrill (Florida Atlantic University),
The Serial Novel in the German-American Press of the 19th Century

Dr. Gerhard Friesen (Wilfrid Laurier University),
The Literary Activity of Adolf Douai

Dr. Robert E. Ward (Baldwin-Wallace College),
Researching German-Speaking Ancestors in the United States