A Few Württemberg Families of Grafenberg, Kohlberg, Riederich & Tischardt

BY C. FREDERICK KAUFHOLZ

This is designed to be a brief and factual account of four Doster families of the United States of America whose American histories have been set forth in The Doster Genealogy by Mrs. Ben Hill Doster which was completed, edited and produced by Wadsworth Doster (The William Byrd Press: Richmond, Virginia, 1945). These four families are considered in Chapters XVII, XXII, XXIII, and XXIV of that work and are numbered as Branches 12, 16, 17 and 18.

In some instances the data given here will correct that of The Doster Genealogy but the correction is not an intended commentary on that work. Some variation in names will be observed particularly as I have adhered to the spellings given in transcripts of the parish records of Kohlberg, Tischardt, Grafenberg and Riederich.

The histories of each of these families have been traced back only to the middle of the 18th Century but there is every reason to consider that they are of common ancestry. All four families spring from a region of Württemberg which lies in a small triangle of less than five miles to a side between Tischardt, Kappishäusern and Riederich. This region is just northeast of the small city of Metzingen near Reutlingen.

The first family we shall consider, the forebearer of Branch 12, originates in Kohlberg, a small village only a kilometer from Kappishäusern and scarcely two kilometers from either Tischardt or Grafenberg, which villages lie themselves only two kilometers apart. Either Kohlberg or Grafenberg was probably the original seat of the entire family.

The second family, the forebearer of Branch 16, is from Riederich but originates in Kappishäusern and is therefore probably very closely allied to the Kohlberg family. Also in the female line this family is descended from a family of Grafenberg of Branch 17.

The third family, the forebearer of Branch 17, originates in Grafenberg whence the family emigrated to America with such other old Grafenberg families as Brandstetter, Euchner, Roller and Thüringer.

The fourth family we shall consider, the forebearer of Branch 18, originates also in Grafenberg and in the female line has common ancestry with Branch 17. This family has four Doster lines of descent from families of the villages of Grafenberg and Kohlberg.

Children of this marriage, born in Grafenberg, were:

- 1) ELEONORA * 12.6.1827; + 1829.
- 2) JOHANN MICHAEL * 17.9.1828; + 1828.
- 3) JOHANNES * 28.8.1829; + 1829.
- 4) JOHANNES * 14.8.1830; + 1830.
- 5) Stillborn Child + 1831.
- 6) GOTTLÖB * 24.8.1832.
- 7) JOHANNES * 22.12.1833; + 1834.
- 8) JOHANN MICHAEL * 23.3.1835 (Is said to have emigrated to America in 1853 with his brother Gottlob and with Maria Gottliebin Brandstetter and her brother Johannes. Records of the Brandstetter family give the date of emigration as March 1854. See: The Brandstetter Family of Tischartt and Grafenberg.) In America he married MARIA GOTTLIEBIN (called Mary Lovina) BRANDSTETTER.
- 9) JOHANNES * 27.9.1836.

Note: The Doster Genealogy, page 242, has a number of obvious errors, if we accept as fact the above transcript of Grafenberg records. It is evident that only three sons of Johannes and Margaretha (Geiger) Doster reached manhood. The Doster Genealogy gives them two sisters, Marguerite and Barbara, who married respectively Fred and George Fisher. I have not enough evidence to solve this riddle but would suggest that Marguerite may well be Margareta Doster (* 23.9.1821), the daughter of Dorothea (Doster) Brudi — see 3. above. Concerning the identity of Barbara, the records in hand give no suggestion.

The Doster Genealogy account of the Brudi family, page 244, also presents us with differences in number and names of children. If our record from Tischartt is complete, then Dorothea Doster and Johann Martin Brudi had only four children which did not include twins: Johann Jakob Brudi and Jakob Johann Brudi. Children Nos. 1., 3., 5. & 8. (page 244 — The Doster Genealogy) are the only ones given in the record and the birth dates for three of them are correct or nearly so. The three children not accounted for may have been cousins or possibly did not exist. As they did not come to America their records are vague and probably based upon hearsay. The Margarete Brudi * ca. 1824, who died in adjacent Riederich, may well be the half sister, Margareta Doster, * Grafenberg 23.9.1821 who did marry in Riederich. The records, however, seem to indicate that she never lived in Tischartt with the Brudi family but rather remained with her grandparents in Grafenberg.

FAMILY IV

The Dosters of Grafenberg II

1. STEPHAN DOSTER, day labourer of Grafenberg, * . . . ? + . . . ?
∞ . . . ?

CHRISTINA FISCHER.

They were the parents of JOHANNES * 19.1.1766.

2. JOHANNES DOSTER, weaver of Grafenberg, * Grafenberg 19.1.1766; + Grafenberg 8.2.1826; ∞ Grafenberg 9.6.1789.

MARIA ROSINA EUCHNER, daughter of JAKOB EUCHNER, Conrad's son (probably Georg Conrad Euchner whose wife was Maria Rosina Reiff) and his wife, MARIA AGNES DOSTER from Kohlberg (possibly an aunt of 1. under Family I.) * Grafenberg 24.10.1766; + Grafenberg 15.5.1839.

They were the parents of JOHANNES * 13.11.1789.

3. JOHANNES DOSTER, farmer of Grafenberg who emigrated to America in March 1835 with his family and with a naturalization certificate for six years; * Grafenberg 13.11.1789 ∞ Grafenberg 17.8.1814.

CHRISTIANA DOSTER of Family III., daughter of JOHANNES DOSTER, mason and mayor of Grafenberg, and of his wife, MARIE AGNES DOSTER; * Grafenberg 17.7.1794.

Children of this marriage, born in Grafenberg, were:

- 1) JOHANNES * 9.11.1814; confirmed in 1828; died in America in 1844.

- 6) STEPHAN * 16.1.1828; married in America.
- 7) CHRISTIANE * 8.5.1831; married in America (to JAKOB FRIEDRICH BRANDSTETTER from Grafenberg — See: The Brandstetter Family of Tischartd and Grafenberg).
- 8) CHRISTOPH * 16.4.1834.
- 9) (A daughter was born after the family came to America.)

THE BRANDSTETTER FAMILY OF TISCHARDT & GRAFENBERG

Because of the Brandstetter family's close relationship to the Dosters in both Germany and America, it seems justifiable to the author to give something of their family history here. As we know of no printed history of this family either abroad or here, we shall carry our history to this country in some instances.

1. JOHANNES BRANDSTETTER, son of GEORG BRANDSTETTER of Tischardt, a farmer of Tischardt, ∞ Tischardt 30.1.1753 MARIA OCKER, daughter of GEORG OCKER, a baker of Großbettlingen.

5. MARIA DOROTHEA BRANDSTETTER * Grafenberg 30.9.1823; + probably at Holland, Erie County, New York (The church records of Grafenberg give the year of her death 1866 and one transcript of Pastor G. Wagner makes the exact date the 10th of January but the date 29.10.1866 appears on her gravestone which may be unreliable as her name is there given as Eliza D. Euchner — a name she was never called. Her youngest child Sarah Euchner Bechtold, the fountain of most family data, gave the date as 29.11.1866. It has not yet been checked with local or county records.) ∞ Grafenberg 8.8.1843.

CHRISTOPH EUCHNER, a farmer of Grafenberg and later of Hunter's Creek, near South Wales, and of Holland, Erie County, New York; * Grafenberg 18.1.1819 a son of JAKOB FRIEDRICH EUCHNER and his wife, MARGARETHA EUCHNER; + Holland, Erie County, New York, 8.10.1903. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Although the gathering and editing of any genealogy must be the work of the author or genealogist, it is not always true that the original research can be or is entirely his own.

For transcription of data from the original church registers of Württemberg villages, I am deeply indebted to Pastor Esche (1936), Pastor G. Wagner (1947) and Pastor Otto Kellner (1949) who have sent me data from the Grafenberg church registers; to Pastor Dieterle (1949) of Frickenhausen for church records from Tischart; to Pastor Traub (1949) for records from the church at Kohlberg; and to Pastor Bertschinger for records from Riederich (1949).

I am also indebted to Mrs. Howard (Lillian Bechtold) Flannigan for a copy of the records in the Euchner Family Bible; to Frank E. Wurst for letting me take a copy of the Wurst Family Bible; to Mrs. Alma Wurst Venner for her many letters with references to family history; and to Miss Dora Brandstetter of Doster, Michigan, for Doster and Brandstetter information.

There are others who may have contributed to this work in some small measure but a fuller acknowledgement of their contributions must await another volume of this series.

German-Texas Pioneers

by

CURT E. SCHMIDT

Honor thy father and thy mother that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee —

Here is a new and different book about the Germans in Texas. It tells of their patriotism, their church, their fun and jokes, their bowling, skat, and shooting and much more. It includes the words and music to their favorite folksongs — even a Schnitzelbank.

Mailed to you for 7.62 plus 38¢ tax — $8.00 in all — autographed and with your special message (Not more than 25 words either in English or German). Order from Folkways Publishing Co., 175 North Market, New Braunfels, Texas 78130.

In memoriam Peter M. Lindt

Am 20. November 1976 verstarb in New York Peter Max (imilian) Lindt, Präsident der 1870 von Carl Schurz und Dr. Abraham Jacobl gegründeten Social Scientific Society for Intercultural Relations, Inc. Dreißig Jahre lang — seit 1946 — hatte Peter Lindt als unermüdlicher Initiator neuer Projekte und Pläne in entscheidender Weise das Konzept wie den Auftrag des ältesten und angesehensten deutsch-amerikanischen Kultur-Forums in New York geprägt.

Der gebürtige Wiener (26. April 1908) kam am 21. Dezember 1938 mit seiner Frau Theodora, geb. von Stojanovic, nach einem Zwischenaufenthalt in der Schweiz in die Vereinigten Staaten. Er hatte zuvor — und zwar im Jahre 1932 — an der Universität Wien den Doktorgrad der Philosophischen Fakultät (in deutscher Literatur) erworben; zehn Jahre danach, 1942, promovierte er erneut an der New Yorker Columbia University im Fach Germanistik zum Ph.D.

Von 1942 bis 1944 war er politischer — wie literarischer — Kommentator beim Radiosender WBNX in New York, der während dieser Jahre jeden Mittwochnachmittag Peter Lindts viel beachtete Interviews mit führenden Persönlichkeiten der deutschen Emigration ausstrahlte. 1944 erschienen diese Interviews unter dem Titel Schriftsteller im Exil in Buchform, drei Jahrzehnte später wurden sie bei Kraus Reprint in Liechtenstein neuaufgelegt. Der Band gibt einen eindrucksvollen Querschnitt durch die literarische Rundfunkfähigkeit Peter Lindts und läßt so berühmte Namen wie Bert Brecht, Thomas Mann, Hermann Broch, Alfred Döblin, Lion Feuchtwanger, Ivan Goll, Carl Zuckmayer, Erich Maria Remarque, Franz Werfel — um nur einige zu nennen — Revue passieren. Die Sammlung dürfte ihre Bedeutung nicht nur als Katalog der deutschen Emigrationsliteratur, sondern auch als zeitgeschichtliches Dokument schlechthin haben.

1945 rief Peter Lindt — neben seiner Rundfunkfähigkeit gab er die Monatsschrift Der Weltspiegel heraus — beim New Yorker Radiosender WEVD als Leiter des German-American Broadcast die German Literature Hour ins Leben: es war dies das einzige deutschsprachige Rundfunk-Kulturprogramm in den USA überhaupt. 1969 wurde er von seiner Frau abgelöst, die nach dem Fortschreiten seines Augenleidens die Sendung bis 1975 übernahm.

Peter Lindts Lebenswerk ist mit seiner langjährigen Rundfunkfähigkeit, seinen publizistischen Aktivitäten und der Leitung der Social Scientific Society keineswegs erschöpft: er war — bereits vor 1938 — zudem als Schriftsteller und Bühnenautor hervorgetreten; zu nennen wären Stücke wie Das Leben spielt Komödie und Salzburger Intermezzo, die im Volkstheater in Wien aufgeführt wurden, sowie Die Ehe des François Beaupré, die über die Bretter des Grazer Schauspielhauses ging. Was das umfangreiche Erzählwerk — Kurzgeschichten, Novellen etc. — betrifft, so sei hier nur auf den Band Künstler und Frauen hingewiesen, der vom Wiener Zsolnay-Verlag angenommen worden war, unter den fatalen Umständen nach dem sog. Anschluß jedoch nicht mehr in den Druck ging.

In Amerika entstand dann außer den genannten Schriftstellern im Exil ein Theaterstück mit dem Titel To Die Where? (1941/42), das die erschütternde Irrfahrt des Emigrantenschiffs "St. Louis" zum Gegenstand hat. Neben Essays, Hörspielen und Kurzgeschichten liegen — last but not least — das Manuskript Mascha — eine Korrespondenz mit meiner Katze, ein Buch in 20 Briefen mit Illustrationen von Rafaelo Busoni, vor sowie ein längeres Romanfragment. Den gesamten Nachlaß zu sichten, dürfte eine gewiß nicht unbedeutende Aufgabe sein, die noch beträchtliche Arbeit und Geduld erfordern wird.

Peter Lindt, mit dem die am kulturellen Geschehen interessierte deutschsprachige Gemeinde New Yorks einen ihrer verdienstvollsten Vertreter verloren hat, wird allen (und dazu zähle ich auch mich selbst), die das Vergnügen hatten, seine persönliche Bekanntschaft zu machen, als kultivierter und geistig anregender Zeitgenosse in Erinnerung bleiben, als — wenn ich so sagen darf — ein Aristokrat des Geistes und der Gesinnung, von denen es nur mehr ganz wenige gibt. Sein Werk fortzuführen, eine Aufgabe, die nun in den Händen seiner Witwe und langjährigen Mitarbeiterin liegt, dürfte kein leichtes Unterfangen sein.

DER REST EINES SYMBOLS

Wo sind die Engel hin?
vom Nadelknopf verschwunden,
nicht mehr im Dome drin am Pfeiler hoch gebunden?

Von Fra Angelica
gemalt mit Mantelfalten, sie sind nicht länger nah
durch Kunst nicht aufzuhalten.

Verlösch't in Zeit und Raum, die Fittiche geschoren, -- nur auf dem Weihnachtsbaum hat ein kleiner sich verloren.

INDEX TO CONFIRMANTS OF ST. JOHN'S EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH AT GARFIELD HTS., OHIO FOR THE YEARS 1854-1929.....

Compiled by Robert E. Ward

In celebration of its 125th anniversary, St. John's in Garfield Heights, a suburb of Cleveland, published a book entitled Geschichte der Evangelisch Lutherischen St. Johannis-Gemeinde zu Garfield Heights, Ohio, 1854-1929. Written in both English and German, this slim volume contains an appendix (pp. 86-117) listing names and other data relating to the church's membership. Of considerable interest to the genealogist is the "Record of the Confirmed" for the years 1854 to 1929---a list of nearly 1000 persons, including the following information: Name, birth, death, present name (the married name of women), residence or place of burial, date of confirmation.

Each of the entries is assigned a number. To assist the researcher, the following index had been compiled by surname. Each surname is followed by the number of numbers of persons on the list.

A copy of this volume is in the Ward Collection, Western Reserve Historical Society, Cleveland, Ohio.

GERMAN-AMERICAN GENEALOGICAL GLEANINGS.....

Plotsk in Bessarabia, South Russia was heavily settled by German-speaking emigrants. The parish registers for this territory were filmed in Berlin, and are at the Genealogical Society (Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints) in Salt Lake City. They date from 1884 to 1903. For records prior to 1884, write to U.S. of America Consul, American Embassy, Dept. of State, Washington, D.C. 20521.

An article on genealogical sources in the Staatliche Bibliothek Regensburg (by G. Urbanek) appeared in BLÄTTER DES BAYRISCHEN LANDESVEREINS FÜR FAMILIENKUNDE, Band XII, Heft 13, 38. Jahrgang (1975).

Records of German apothecaries and pharmacists are an extremely valuable source of genealogical data. Many genealogical and biographical articles appear in the periodical which specializes in German apothecary history, BEITRÄGE ZUR APOTHEKENGESCHICHTE. Volume X (Band X), No. 4 (Heft 4) for 1974 (December issue) treats pharmacists in Leutkirch, Ravensburg, Basel, and Stuttgart. The fifth number (Heft 5) of that volume (June 1975) has an article entitled "Apotheker Ernst Rieker aus Backnang in Amerika."

The Verlag Degener (D 8530 Neustadt/Aisch, West Germany) is the publisher of the important work by Carl Schulz (3000 BERLINER KOLONISTEN UND KOLONISTENSÖHNE 1686-1812) which appeared in 1972 and treats some 3000 colonists and their descendants in Berlin.

Degener Verlag has also advertised for sale several other important genealogical works dealing with names and places in Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Write to Degener for free catalogs of the works available.
