4. Museum of Russian Culture in San Francisco - Saturday, September 23rd -
Maria Sakovich, historian, independent scholar, granddaughter of the Rector of the Holy Trinity Cathedral, Archpriest Vladimir Sakovich (1918-1931).

Her presentation titled “One Picture — Several Stories: The Petrograd Children’s Colony in Russia and America” (in English).

On August 1st, 1920 a Japanese ship chartered by the American Red Cross docked in San Francisco. On board were nearly 800 children from Russia, who became guests of the city for four days. A small group of boys posed for a photo on the steps of Holy Trinity Cathedral (at Van Ness Avenue and Green Street).
