

TOLA Theatre Conference

A conference on Theatre in the Americas is being planned by TOLA (Theatre of Latin America) for this coming fall at the Eugene O'Neill Center in Waterford, Connecticut, with additional sites under consideration for expanded and related activities.

The event, the first of its kind in the western hemisphere, will bring together individuals and groups from theatre communities representing the nations of Latin America, Canada and the U.S. for workshops, discussions, performances and exhibits. The conference is designed to provide an arena for greater understanding between the nations of the Western hemisphere by creating a productive environment among artists to explore their own and each others professional ideas.

As an extended service to the individuals and groups represented at the conference, TOLA will arrange performance and lecture tours at universities throughout the country.
