

Centro Paraguayo de Teatro (CEPATE)

Founded in 1980, CEPATE is a private, non-profit organization which seeks to preserve and promote Paraguay's theatrical heritage. Its directors include Rudi Torga, Víctor Borgado, and Blás Alcaraz. Currently the organization is involved in founding the Biblioteca Josefina Plá, which will be the first library in Paraguay to specialize in theatre. The group's publication, Momarandu, lists current and upcoming theatrical events. It is hoped that CEPATE will be successful in promoting Paraguayan theatre at home and abroad.
