ISTA Salento '87

ISTA (International School of Theatre Anthropology), directed by Eugenio Barba, held its fifth public session in the Salento region of Italy from September 1-14, 1987. Promoted by the Institute of Sociology and Anthropology of Arts (University of Lecce) and by MEDITERRANEA Teatrolaboratorio, the session was dedicated to the theme "The Actor's Tradition and the Spectator's Identity: Theatrical Dialogues." The festival made use of all types of public space for its performances of mainly Oriental, Indian and Balinese theatre, from formal theatres to country areas. Concurrent with the performances were a seminar for playwrights and directors on text and action in the theatre and a seminar on theatre anthropology.
